

Communiqué

Registration of Suppliers and Service Providers other than Consultants

The Construction Industry Development Board (CIDB) wishes to inform the public at large that it is extending its regulatory functions to other stakeholders of the construction industry and in this respect the following new Regulations were inter alia made in 2018 which came into force on 01 November 2018:

- (1) Construction Industry Development Board (Registration of Suppliers) Regulations 2018
- (2) Construction Industry Development Board (Registration of Service Providers other than Consultants) Regulations 2018

Subsequently, a transitional period until 30 June 2018 was allowed so that registration could start at the beginning of the financial year, that is on 01 July 2019.

Registration of the following categories of Suppliers and Service Providers has now become mandatory.

Suppliers of the following Construction Materials:	Suppliers of the following Plant and Equipment:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) Aggregates(ii) Bitumen(iii) Cement(iv) Ready Mix Concrete(v) Concrete Blocks and Bricks(vi) Paint and Waterproofing Materials(vii) Reinforcement Bars and Steel Sections(viii) Aluminium(ix) Timber	<ul style="list-style-type: none">(i) Earth Moving Equipment(ii) Materials Handling Equipment(iii) Scaffolding

Service Providers other than Consultants providing the following services

- (i) Computer Aided Design (CAD) Operators for Construction Works, including Draughtsman;
- (ii) Technician in Construction; and
- (iii) Third Party Certifier in Construction

Suppliers and Service Providers listed above are hereby informed that they should register with the CIDB at the earliest to be in compliance with the provisions of the CIDB Act and Regulations. Failure to register with CIDB constitutes an offence under the CIDB Act and the Regulations thereof. On conviction, offenders shall be liable to fine of Rs 50,000 and imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year.

Applications shall be made on the prescribed Form available on the website indicated below. The duly filled in Application Form shall be deposited at this Office accompanied by all the supporting documents indicated in the Checklist.

Further information on the above may be obtained by contacting the CIDB on 2117878 or visiting the website <https://www.cidb.mu>