

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO STAKEHOLDERS

Transition to the Construction Industry Authority (CIA)

Dear Valued Stakeholders,

We are pleased to inform you that, following the proclamation of the Construction Industry Authority Act in April 2024, the Construction Industry Authority (CIA) has officially taken over the responsibilities and functions previously managed by the Construction Industry Development Board (CIDB).

This transition marks a significant milestone in our ongoing efforts to enhance the regulation and development of the construction industry in Mauritius. The CIA will continue to uphold the high standards and commitment to excellence that you have come to expect, while also introducing new initiatives and improvements to better serve our stakeholders and the construction industry.

KEY CHANGES AND UPDATES

Responsibilities and Functions

All regulatory, advisory, and developmental functions previously handled by the CIDB are now under the jurisdiction of the CIA. This includes, but is not limited to, registration of stakeholders, industry training, industry oversight, and compliance monitoring.

Contact Information

For any inquiries, assistance, or information, stakeholders can continue to use the existing contact details until further notice. Our team is available to ensure a smooth transition and address any questions you may have.

New Website Under Construction

We are pleased to announce that the CIA is in the process of developing a new and improved website. This platform will provide enhanced accessibility, updated resources, and comprehensive information about our services, regulations, and initiatives. The new website will be available soon, and we will keep you informed about its launch.

Stay Updated

Until the launch of our new website, regular updates will be provided through our official communication channels, including press communiqué and email notifications.

Collaboration

We appreciate your continued support and cooperation during this period of transition. Together, we will build a stronger and more resilient construction industry in Mauritius.

We reassure all our valued stakeholders that you will be kept informed about the important changes within our organization and our commitment to ongoing improvement and service excellence.

Please do not hesitate to reach out to us if you have any questions or require further information. Call us on 211 7878 or drop an email at cidbmauritius@intnet.mu

Thank you for your kind understanding during this period of Transition.
